

FLORA OF BRAZIL

State of Bahia

No. R. 8026

Luetzelburgia auriculata (Fr. Allem.) Ducke

2km from Riachão das Neves on the road to Barreiras, 11°46'S 44°54'W, alt. 640m.

In sparse roadside remnants of mesotrophic cerrado.

Small shrub, 1m tall, originating from coppice regeneration. Petals pale watery pink; standard narrow, tongue-like, with a pale green median stripe and encircled by a submarginal pink stripe.

Date: 24 vii 1998

Coll.: J.A. Ratter, S. Bridgewater & J. Batista dos Santos.