

New book now available...

WILDLIFE IN THE MARCHES – MARK LAWLEY

Who first discovered the wildlife of the Welsh Marches? Where did they go? And what did they find?

With over 380 pages of beautifully illustrated text and around 400 enthralling photographs, WILDLIFE IN THE MARCHES is a fresh and fascinating blend of social and natural history that tells of the lives and discoveries of naturalists in the Welsh Marches.

Armchair and serious naturalists will all want this well-researched and thoroughly enjoyable book – a must for your bookshelf

CONTENTS

PREFACE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS ■ v	THE 20 th CENTURY AND BEYOND ■ 165
THE LAND THAT TIME FORGOT ■ 3 Ironstone Cleef Hill	Three tiers for spotty maps ■ 166
THE 16 th AND 17 th CENTURIES ■ 17	Birds, butterflies and blooms ■ 180
Early naturalists: merchants, money and mobility ■ 18 Bridle and other igneous hills	River Teme, Tattenridge Hill, Black Mountains
THE 18 th CENTURY ■ 37	Large fungi ■ 195
Pioneers of the 18 th century ■ 38 the gorges of Downton and Bach Howay	Croft
THE 19 th CENTURY ■ 55	Harder to find ■ 202
Rise of the middle class ■ 56 the last world of Leominster	Wooded pastures ■ 209 Moccas Park, Brampton Bryan, Walkot, Groggyn
Blooms and botanists ■ 65 more about Leominster, Buryfield Cottages	Mosses and liverworts ■ 222 Cefnch
Birds and bird-men ■ 82 the Gwynedd	Insects ■ 232
Butterflies and big moths ■ 93 the Long Mynd	An underworld of parasites ■ 252
Unmentionables: small and secretive species ■ 107	Many more unmentionables ■ 269
NATURAL HISTORY'S SOCIAL SIDE ■ 121	Ecology's influence on natural history: professional naturalists and field stations ■ 294 Shropshire's Men, the Shropshire-Montgomeryshire Canal, Lydbroom
Societies and field clubs ■ 122	Natural history in the 21 st century ■ 309
Days in the field ■ 137 Shropshire Gorge, Overfield Forest, Brampton Bryan Park, Marchington and Bereyn	NOTABLE NATURALISTS ■ 320
Forays among the funguses ■ 156	BIBLIOGRAPHY ■ 340
	WILDLIFE INDEX ■ 342
	GENERAL INDEX ■ 354

Further Information

View Sample Pages

Available from www.amazon.co.uk

Watch the promotional films:

