

FLORA OF BRAZIL
Federal District

No. R. 4544

Calliandra virgata Benth.

Brasília, Peninsula Norte QL 11, on the slope overlooking the NE arm of Lago do Paranoá.

Low campo seco with a considerable amount of bare soil between plants.

'Renewable shrub' (i.e. producing new aerial shoots every year) with clumps of  $\pm$  unbranched shoots to 75 cm tall.

Perianth pale yellow-green; staminal tube creamy white, upper parts of filaments & the anthers pink.

Date: 19.10.1980

Coll.: J. A. Rutter