

FLORA OF BRAZIL

State of São Paulo

No. R.4832 Det. N. Taroda 1986.

Cordia guazumaefolia (Desv.) R.S.

Floresta de Angatuba (23°27'S 48°25'W),
Instituto Florestal de SP.

In margin of secondary forest close to the roadside.

Soft shrub to 2 m tall. Flowers sometimes smell of rancid butter. Corollas white.
Two style-length morphs noted in population: homostyle and short style?
Fruits bright red.

Date. 11.11.1983

Coll.: J.A. Ratter, G.C.G. Argent, P.E. Gibbs,
G.J. Shepherd & Dulce M.S. de Rocha