

FLORA OF BRAZIL

Federal District

No. R 5001

Det. N. Taroda 1986

Cordia truncata Fresen.

Brasilia, Peninsula Norte (SHIN Q16 CONJ. 10).

In fairly dense cerrado with a well-developed ground layer.

Perennial herb, 40 cm tall. Flowers white. Leaves being eaten by beetle larvae and an adult beetle also present (coloured black with slight orange mottling).

Uncommon. Unicate.

Date. 4.12.1983

Coll.: J.A. Ratter & G.C.G. Argent